To Forward Planning and Implementation, LCC

I am writing to object in strong terms to the proposed allocation above.

This is part of the green belt of Leeds and one of the most beautiful locations and amenities in the City. Losing such a huge site to dense housing cheek by jowl with the becks side heritage of the Western boundary of Meanwood Park, would be nothing less than a tragedy.

It is not possible to accept that the vague intimation of a planning gain elsewhere (for a sports stadium that is a successful commercial operation in its own right) could rationally be counted as a factor to justify the destruction of an atmospheric and lovely amenity and habitat, that provides just as much value to the community as the stadium concerned, valued though that is.

Regards
