Dear Sir,

We have lived in Horsforth for 17 years before coming to live here in Rawdon.

Horsforth has now become just a suburb. It was a lovely village and we enjoyed the surrounding green areas.

Rawdon is in danger of becoming a similar place. Residents are already sick of the traffic which now comes through the village to avoid the A65.

It takes so long to get anywhere these days because of all the cars on the roads. Please do not let our green belt be built on. We choose to live here because of the areas around us.

We do not need any more houses and cars on the roads around here. The schools are full and the doctors have waiting lists.
It is ridiculous to bring more people to this area.

Yours faithfully
