Re. House building in Aireborough.
As a resident of this area for 70+ years, I have witnessed the congestion of the roads and problems with the lack of schools, doctors and dentists trying to cope with the ever increasing numbers. Of course extra housing is needed but not on precious green sites, and my big concern has always been, why are there so many empty properties, especially flats which are above shops in the high streets.
We think nothing of renting something similar for 2 weeks in the sun somewhere, and it is the norm in places like Glasgow and Edinburgh, also Europe.
We really must sort this problem out.

The watercolour design on this notecard was created by a soldier injured during the First World War. A British Red Cross volunteer nurse, Beatrice Orrell, encouraged soldiers to paint to keep their spirits up whilst they recovered in hospital.
