Dear sir,

Re; Site allocation Plan Consultation -HG2-180.

This site is in the Greenbelt and a further encroachment into the open countryside destroying good agricultural farm land and would not preserve the setting and view of the adjacent Oulton Conservation Area

There are no large employers in this area ,no bus to Rothwell and other bus services are infrequent. The site is some considerable distance from the train station and therefore a car dependent site,unsustainable,unsound,and not justified.

If you intend to build cheap,affordable houses there are plenty of brown field sites in the city and closer to large employers.

Yours sincerely.

D.H.Fryer
